ORDER DECLINING SPECIAL ACTION JURISDICTION WITHOUT PREJUDICE

The court, Presiding Judge David B. Gass, and Judges Michael J. Brown and David D. Weinzwieg participating, has considered the petition for special action in this matter. After review,

IT IS ORDERED that the Court of Appeals, in the exercise of its discretion, declines to accept special action jurisdiction without prejudice to petitioner filing a new petition that includes an appropriate record of the superior court proceedings, including but not limited to, (1) a certified transcript of oral argument and other transcripts or minute entries that contain applicable court rulings, (2) all relevant motions, including responses and replies, (3) all pertinent exhibits to such motions, including trial and deposition transcripts, to the extent such transcripts were submitted to the superior court for consideration. In issuing this order, the court expresses no opinion regarding the merits of this petition for special action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED vacating this court's previous order requiring the filing and service of a response to the petition.
